

Memo

To: Doctors and MAs
From: Management
Date: April 28, 2022
Re: Sending prescriptions

In the past when a culture has come back positive, doctors have documented in the lab for the MA on call to send a prescription. Unfortunately, an MA transposed the information incorrectly into the rx tab and it was sent to the pharmacy.

To ensure that the correct medication and directions are sent, for new medications doctors are required to create the original escript to ensure accuracy.

The protocol for medication refills will still be followed.